Kim and Carrots

by Clara Vulliamy

Kim and Carrots are wading in the sea with Mommy and Daddy.

Look! There's a little crab!

Daddy and Kim are digging.

They make a big boat out of sand.

Mommy writes Kim's name in the sand with her finger.

Then Kim makes a face out of stones, shells, and seaweed.

In the Deep Blue Sky

Traditional Korean Rhyme ★ Art by Sylvia Long

High there in the deep blue sky,
Down the Milky Way,
Rides a ship without a sail,
With no oars, they say.
White the ship, its only crew
Is a rabbit white.
Westward they float onward,
Quietly through the night.

Daffy Down Dilly

A Mother Goose Rhyme
Art by Jill Dubin

Daffy Down Dilly
Has come to town
In a yellow petticoat
And a green gown.

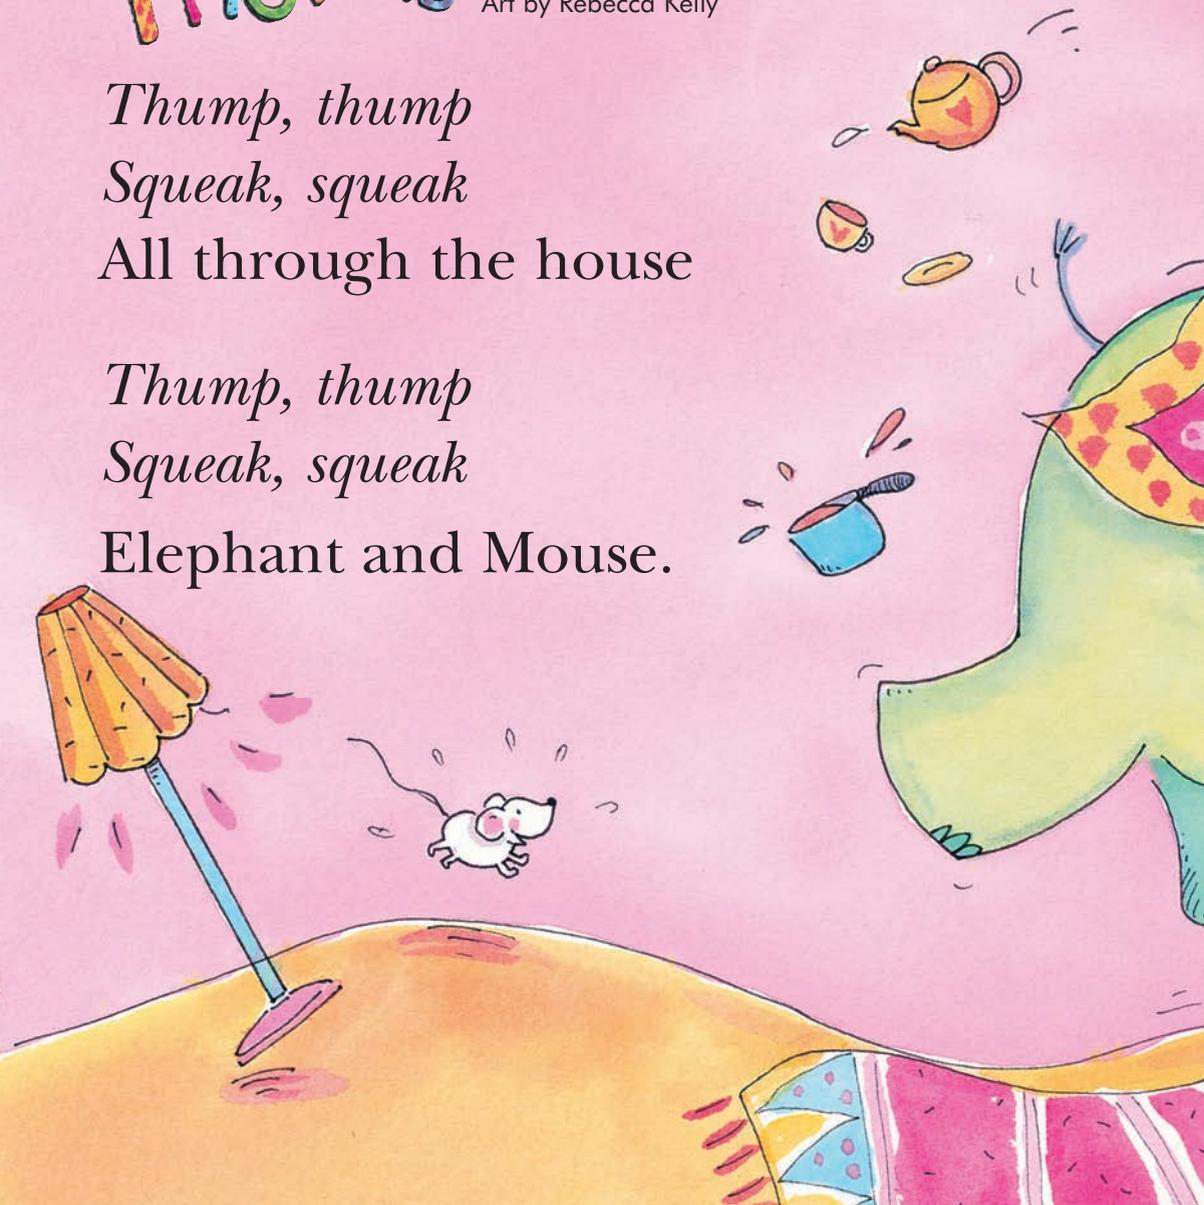

Friends

by Joan Stevenson
Art by Rebecca Kelly

Thump, thump
Squeak, squeak
All through the house

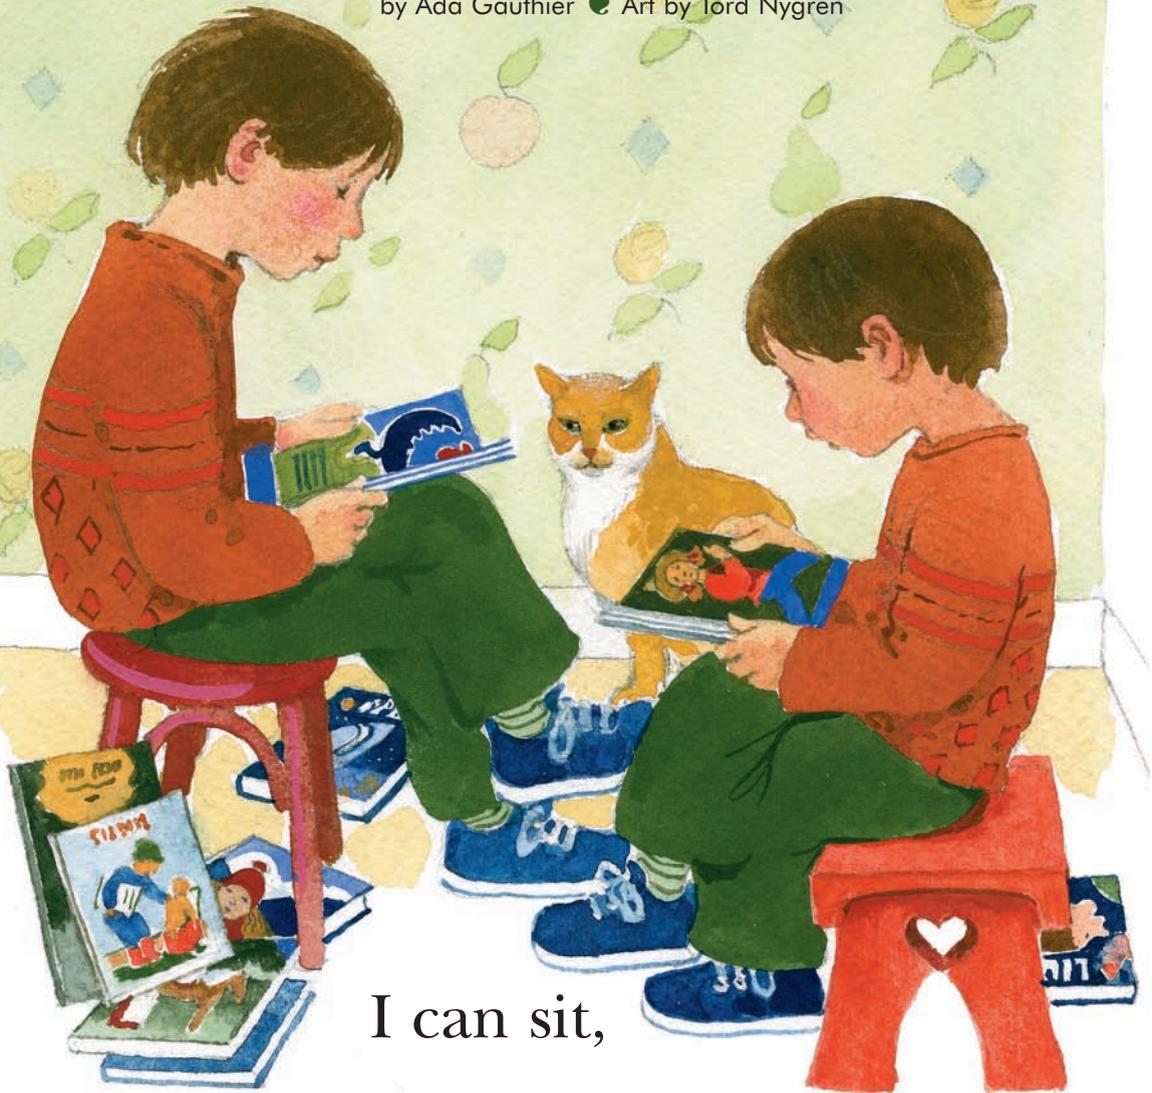

Thump, thump
Squeak, squeak
Elephant and Mouse.

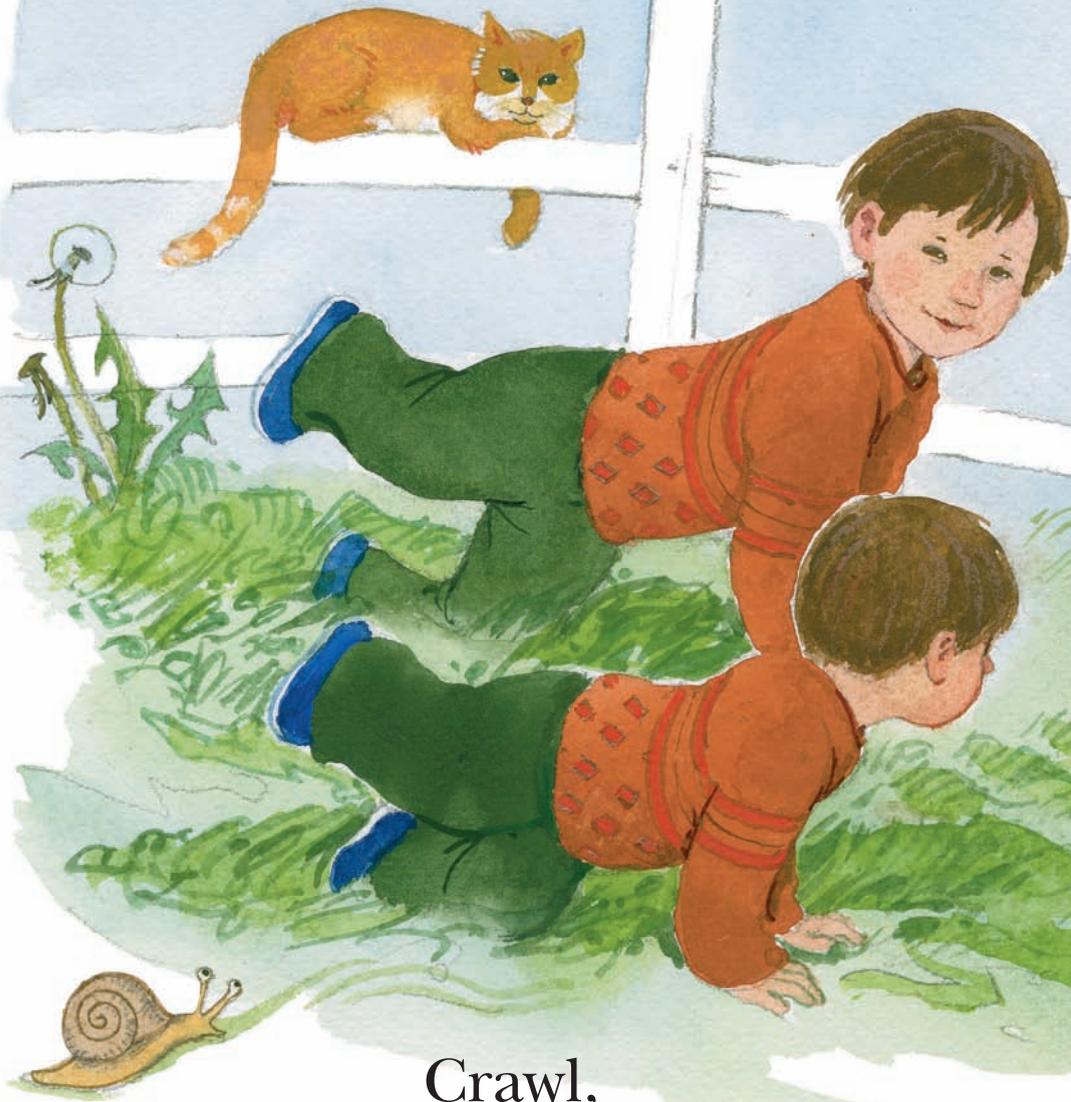

Just Like Big Brother

by Ada Gauthier 🍀 Art by Tord Nygren

I can sit,

Crawl,

Run,

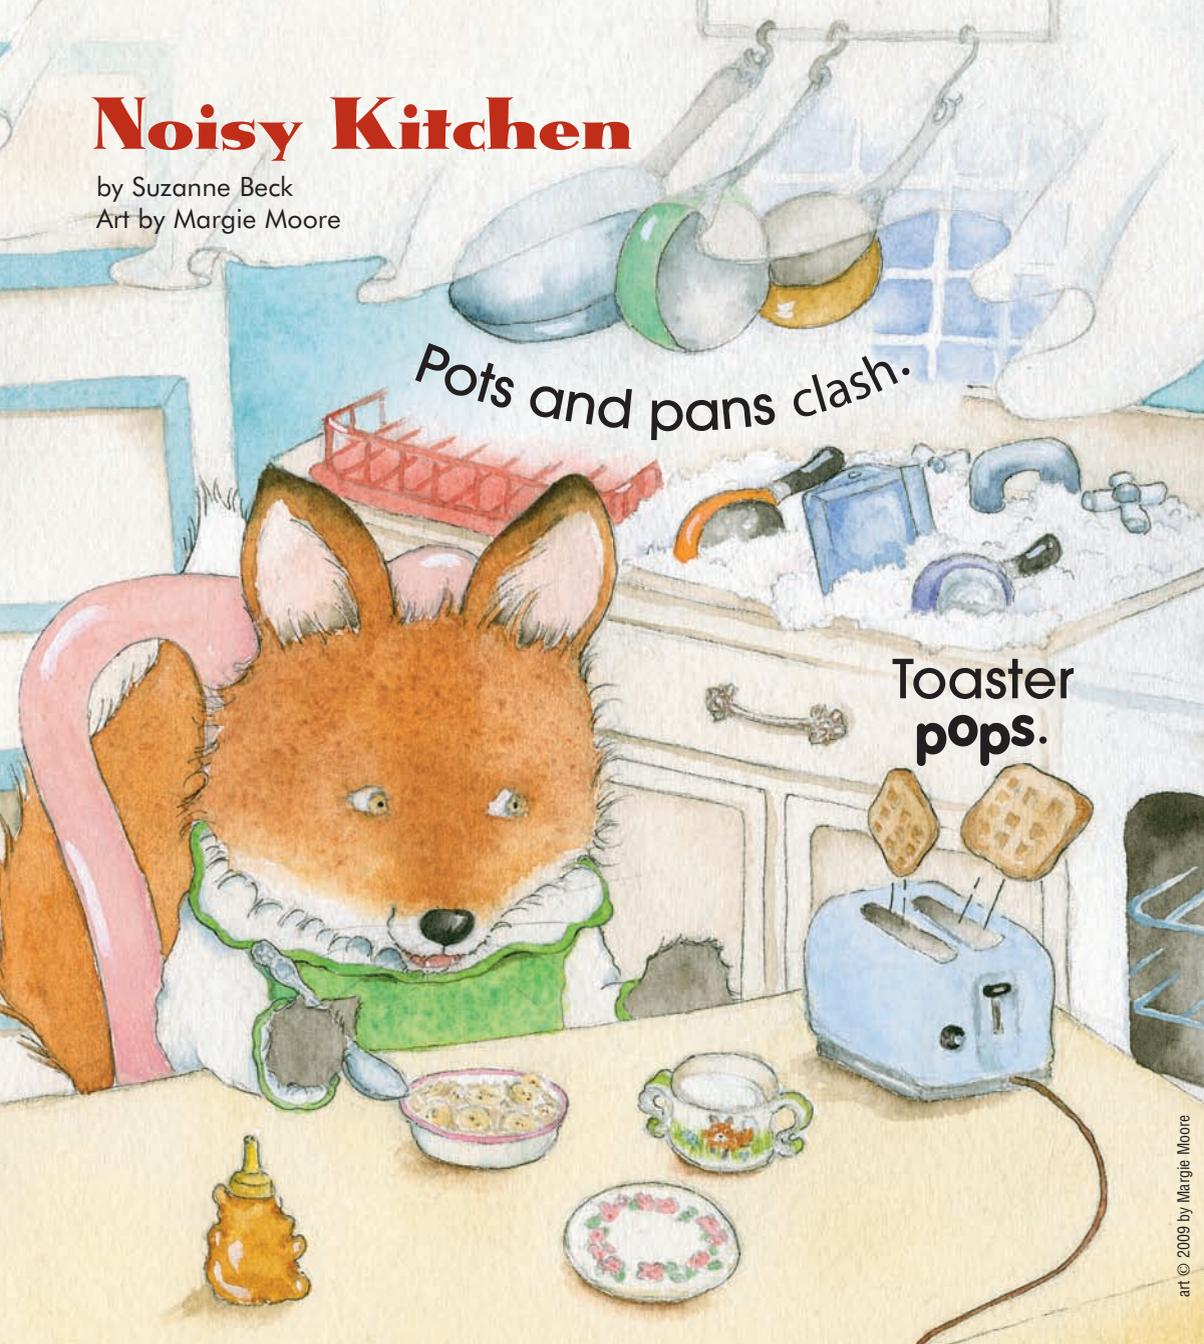

Ride!

Noisy Kitchen

by Suzanne Beck
Art by Margie Moore

Pots and pans clash.

Toaster
pops.

Tea kettle toots.

Timer buzzes.

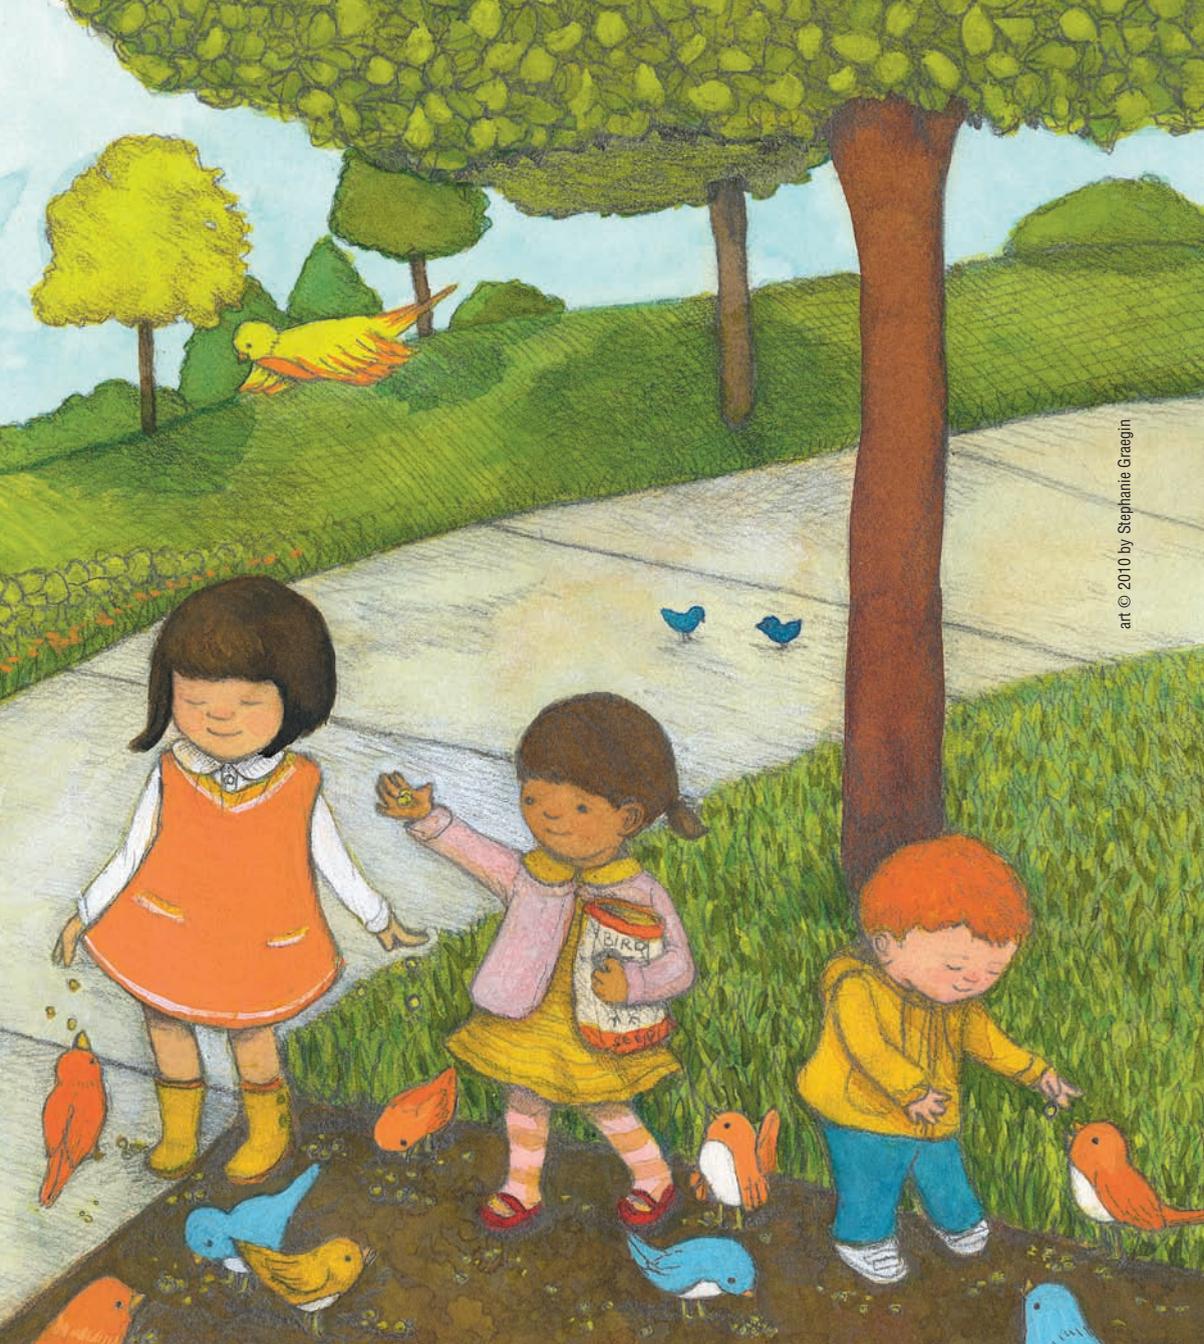

It must be time to eat!

The Children Feed the Birds

by Dale Cross Purvis ♥ Art by Stephanie Graegin

They peck the seeds upon the walk,
Then they tell us, in bird talk:
“You are a kind and thoughtful bunch.
Thank you for our tasty lunch!”

Miss Messy Toodles

by Lynn Parrish Sutton ♦ Art by Cynthia Jabar

Miss Messy Toodles
ate up her noodles.
Who gets to clean up
the floor?—Her poodles!

The Peacock's Tail

by Pamela Love

Art by Jane Smith

A peacock has a fancy tail

He spreads from side to side.

It's full of spots that look like eyes

Which all are opened wide.

Parents: Encourage your child to perform the suggested motions along with you as you recite this action rhyme.
